NOTED WRITER RECOUNTS HIS EXPERIENCES IN WAR ZONE

Mr. Henry Sydnor Harrison Delivers Address
at Bruton Parish on "War Relief"

Mr. Henry Sydnor Harrison delivered an address in Bruton Parish church last Thursday under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Williamsburg. As the author of "V. V's. Eyes" and "Queed" and a constant contributor to magazines, the speaker hardly needed an introduction to his audience. Several months were spent by Mr. Harrison last summer in the war zone in the employment of the American Ambulance Service. He returns to us from Europe filled with sympathy for the suffering and is now lending his efforts to arouse our sympathy which he believes should be more manifest. Therefore, his subject was "War Relief."

In describing the horrors of the war the speaker told of the conditions around Dunkirk, France, where he was stationed. Mr. Harrison depicted striking war scenes of refugees seeking shelter under cover of darkness, leaving behind relatives whether dead or alive, they did not know; of the heaped masses of ruin wrought by the siege guns; of the intense suffering caused by the asphyxiating gas, which is comparable to that of the white plague; of a fifteen-year-old girl colliding with a shell as she went for a loaf of bread. The novelist continued, "To my mind the most pitiable sights imaginable are the sufferings of the innocent and the weak. At a distance of twenty-four miles the German siege guns make no discrimination. They summon men, women and children—all alike to the death roll.

"The French have a commendable spirit. In the roads that lead to the trenches, on one side as far as you can see, are ambulances bringing back the wounded; on the other side are columns of troops marching on to fill up the gaps in the battle line. They go to the front with as little concern as a man in America going to his place of business. In spite of their dreadful disasters the French have strong courage and refuse to be sorry for themselves. They merely say, 'This is war', as they view the havoc of this very terrible and deadly war.

ACADEMY BASKETBALL TEAM DOWNS NEWPORT NEWS HIGH SCHOOL QUINT

Local Preps. Wrest One Point Lead from Visitors in Last Minute

The fast William and Mary Academy quint on Thursday night came from behind a ten point lead and defeated Newport News High School by a garrison finish 26 to 25. During the first part of the game the "Little Indians" were swept almost off their feet, the high school scoring eight points before the locals could get a goal. At the end of the first half the score stood 10 to 17.

The second half was started with a rush, Ellis caging a good one from the field only a few seconds after the ball had been put in play. With this the locals seemed to acquire new strenght and the period was marked throughout by a steady gain for them. The high school, however, fought hard to retain the advantage gained in the opening period.

Ellis was the star for the Academy, scoring fourteen points. Armistead and Burford the big center, also deserve mention. The former scored eight points. Jenkins, for the high school, played best.

Line-up and summary:

N. N. H. S.	Position	W. & M. A.
Gary	..... l f.....	Armistead
Jeffery	..... r f.....	Ellis
Louis	..... c.....	Burford
Jenkins	..... l g.....	Murphy
Heath	..... r g.....	Amory

Field goals: Academy—Ellis 7, Armistead 3, Burford 2; High School—Gary 3, Jeffrey 2, Louis, Jenkins 4, Leath 2. Fouls—Armistead 2; Jenkins 3. Referee—Mr. Jones, of William and Mary.

We regret to say that Mrs. L. G. Tyler has been very ill during the last week. However, it is reported that she is recovering rapidly.

"If you could see wounded soldiers who are receiving not half the attention needed, because of an inadequate hospital corps; and the three million Belgians driven from their homes and dependent upon others for food and shelter, you could realize the necessity for American aid."

A War Relief Association was organized just after Mr. Harrison's speech. This association will be affiliated with the State War Relief Association at Richmond.

INDIANS EASILY DEFEAT RICH- MOND BLUES BY 56-25 SCORE

Varsity Outplays Soldiers in Interesting Basketball Contest. Gayle Cages Eleven Field Goals

Again the Indian basketeers went on a successful scalping party when they overwhelmed the Richmond Blues here Saturday night by the score of 56 to 25. From the very start when "Dick" Gayle shot a field goal a second after the first whistle, there was no doubt of the Collegians' superiority. In the first half the Orange and Black scored 26 points to the Blue's 11 and the scoring in the second period was in a similiar proportion.

It was several minutes after the game had commenced before the soldiers could locate the basket. The varsity played whirlwind ball at the start and ran up twelve points before the Richmonders scored. Gayle was the chief factor in the scoring, the big center making six field goals in the first period. Geddy, who played Zion's regular position, left forward, the first half, put up a creditable exhibition of the cage game, finding the basket for three field goals.

The Blues played harder in the closing half, but their attempts to overcome the lead or check the attack of the Indians were ineffectual. To the credit of the soldiers it must be said that they fought gamely all the way through. Zion entered the game at the opening of the second period and scored five pretty field goals. Wallace went in for Robertson and caged the ball twice in addition to doing some clever guarding. The entire team showed its winning possibilities, though not putting up as good an exhibition as that shown against the Howitzers. Every William and Mary man should boost the quint, which stands splendid chances for championship honors in the Eastern Virginia series.

Line-up and Summary:

W. & M.	Position	Blues
Jones	.....right forward.....	Steele
Gayle	.....center.....	Hughes
Stryker	.....right guard.....	Blanton...

Substitutions—Zion for Geddy, Wallace for Robertson, Williams for Stryker, Wood for Thornton. Field goals—Geddy 3, Jones 5, Gayle 11, Wallace 2, Zion 5, Thornton 3,

BOARD OF VISITORS HOLD REGULAR WINTER MEETING

Request Formulated Includes State Appropriation Totaling $160,000

On January 7th in the College Infirmary the Board of Visitors of the College held its regular winter meeting. Several very important matters were considered.

After the meeting was called to order, President Tyler presented a report giving formal notice of the death of the late Dr. Thomas J. Stubbs, professor of mathematics in the College for twenty-seven years.

Then the needs of the College were considered. President Tyler made several recommendations to be presented to the General Assembly. After the discussion of these recommendations the Board determined which should be accepted to be put before the Legislature. It was decided to apply for an increase in the regular annual appropriation from $40,000 to $50,000; then for a new dormitory the cost of which is not to exceed $50,000; for an enlargement of the Science Hall, the cost of which is not to exceed twelve thousand; and for an enlargement of the Gymnasium, the cost of which is not to exceed four thousand.

It is sincerely hoped that the state legislature will realize the need for these improvements at William and Mary and likewise the importance of an increased annuity. The request has been made as moderate as possible. If the annuity is increased the board contemplates a new chair of agriculture and rural education as well as assistant professorships in the departments of chemistry and modern languages. A committee, consisting of Robert M. Hughes, rector of the college, Lyon G. Tyler, president, and W. C. L. Taliaferro, chairman of the finance committee of the Board of Visitors, was appointed to present these needs to the legislature.

The remaining acts of the board were of minor importance. After a few unimportant discussions and some routine work the board adjourned.

Hughes 5, Steele 3, Word, Blanton. Goals from foul—Jones 4 out of 5; Hughes, 1 out of 5. Referee, Hubbard, (W. & M.). Time of halves, 20 minutes.

THE END OF A TERM

Now the examinations are upon us, the time when "the young man's fancy" turns in other than the proverbial direction. Time after time you have heard the ancient advice to refrain from overwork and worry; to keep yourself "physically and mentally awake." In other words the advice has been to those few who may "overstudy."

Certainly something should be said to those men who might take examinations too lightly, and we believe them as numerous as the "grinds." We all win by effort. That effort must be regulated, but, nevertheless, we shall be conscious of some work. A little effort at different times throughout the year would have sufficed, but apparently it has been lacking. Several of the professors candidly state that their classes are poor and that the average is below passing grade. This means work, for the man who does make his classes, the man who loafs, does not stay at William and Mary. You remember Euclid's remark to Ptolemy and if you have not already found it true you soon will. Examinations mean work, careful work, but after all is said, work.

It is also a time to again call the attention of the new students to the honor system. "Avoid all appearance of evil" is the motto to be followed. Remember that the honor system is a student system and make its meaning a part of your very self. Under this system each man is on his honor not to cheat on examination, and whether caught or not a man's honor has been impaired if his pledge has been broken. Keep this in mind, and the penalty exacted by the students surely indicates the seriousness of an offense.

For consideration by the German Club we present the following rules:

1. That engagements for dances be allowed, as usual, previous to the dance, but that the German Club desires several dances to be kept open for its guests.
2. That not more than two encores be permissible to each dance and that they be of average length.
3. That after the third dance breaks be allowed at the beginning of the encores.

It is our opinion that an adoption by the German Club of these rules will prove the best solution to the question which now confronts the dancers of the college.

Some men surely forgot themselves in the excitement of the Academy game last Thursday. But this should not have been. The true sportsman never loses his head to such an extent that he tries to take unfair advantage of the position of his opponent. We speak of the hooting and whistling which some men indulged in while a member of the Newport News quint was attempting to score that point allowed him by an act of one of our own men.

This is the first season in years that this has happened in our gymnasium, and we hope to see it stopped at once. It is high time that the new men, and some old, had absorbed that spirit of fairness and regard for the rights of our opponents which has characterized the spectators at William and Mary, and there is no other sport in which that spirit can be more easily expressed than in basketball.

SUGGESTIONS

Students, especially the new men, are often puzzled to know how to prepare for examinations. Dr. Sentelle makes the following general suggestions:

Cover the whole subject. Go over it all to refresh the details in the mind. Spotting is unsafe. If dailys and reviews have been studied this will not be cramming, but refreshing the memory.

Utilize all the time of examinations. Do not wait till just before time for it to study and come in fifteen minutes late. Study hard the days before.

Go on the examination fresh and with a clear brain. Do not stay up too late the night before, or study at all the morning of the examination.

Get a plenty of sleep and take plenty of exercise. Work hard the rest of the time.—Davidsonian.

LITERARY SOCIETY OFFICERS

At their meeting last Saturday night the Phoenix and Philomathean Literary Societies held their regular election of officers for the second term. The treasurers, B. H. Seekford, of the Philomathean, and H. H. Sinms, of the Phoenix, hold office for a whole year and are not elected in January. The Literary Critic of the Philomathean Society has not yet been chosen as he has to be a man approved by the faculty.

The following is a list of the officers elected:

PHILOMATHEAN

President, I. W. Robertson.
Vice-president, F. F. Jenkins.
Secretary, Jno. Bently.
Sergeant-at-arms, M. M. Hillard.
Parliamentary Critic, Geo. L. Ferguson.
Chaplain, P. N. Deering.
Executive Committee, R. L. Combs, W. W. Johnson, and the vice-president.

PHOENIX

President, F. D. G. Ribble.
Vice-president, J. P. Ingle.
Secretary, O. W. French.
Literary Critic, W. M. Grimsley.
Parliamentary Critic, C. A. Scott.
Sergeant-at-arms, Rowe.
Chaplain, L. E. Fuller.
Executive Committee, R. M. Newton, chairman; D. P. Lohr, F. A. Carpenter.

The Jefferson Literary Society of the Academy has also elected officers for the coming term. Those chosen were:

President, E. S. Burford.
Vice-president, V. Steadman.
Secretary, O. E. Simms.
Treasurer, H. C. Somers.
Literary Critic, G. M. Nicholson.
Parliamentary Critic, I. F. Johnson.
Sergeant-at-arms, Green.
Chaplain, C. M. Barber.

UNIVERSITY CLUB OF RICHMOND

The city of Richmond will at last have a University Club modeled after the clubs of that name of other cities. Several days ago the club was organized at a meeting held at the Westmoreland Club and steps were taken to put the organization on a firm basis.

The privilege of membership in the University Club will be extended to those who have had at least two years' resident work at a college or university, and it is thought that there are now two hundred eligibles. At present a house will only be leased, but as the membership increases a permanent home may be secured.

At the meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society Saturday night eight members were dropped from the roll for non-payment of dues. R. L. Combs was elected assistant editor of the Literary Magazine.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. G. J. Lane, who resigned from college shortly before Christmas, and Mr. Brooks, ex. '17, are working at the Du Pont power mill at Hope-well.

Mr. Edward Porter has gone to his home in Boykins on account of the illness of his father.

Among those missed from college after the holidays is T. R. Tucker. Tucker is suffering from an attack of lagrippe at his home.

The produce of the Standard Oil Company is being used very freely, especially in Brafferton. May the professors take notice.

Much interest is being shown in the coming intercollegiate debates. Every night there are many in the Library working on the question. One table is devoted entirely to literature on the Monroe Doctrine. Read this over and then "take a shot" in the contest.

A perusal of the student roll shows that there is only one Smith and only one Jones in College this year.

MR. HUGHES TO SPEAK TOMORROW NIGHT

Hon. Robert M. Hughes, of Norfolk, the Rector of the College, will be the Lee Day speaker in Williamsburg tomorrow, January 19. The address will be delivered in the College Chapel at eight o'clock p. m. Confederate veterans and the students of the College are urged to be present to hear Mr. Hughes.

GERMAN CLUB ELECTION

Owing to the fact that Mr. G. J. Lane has withdrawn from College, and that Mr. H. W. Thorpe will completed his course this term it was necessary for the German Club to elect a president and a vice-president for the remainder of the year.

At a meeting held Wednesday night, Mr. H. T. Moncure was elected president and Mr. R. M. Newton, vice-president.

COLLEGE COMMENT

Dr. C. C. Bass of Tulane College of Medicine has been selected as head of a group of scientific workers to conduct an intensive study of malaria in Mississippi.

Duddy Nobles, "the fastest man in Dixie," ends a remarkable athletic career at Mississippi A. & M. this year. Unless the unforeseen happens this man will have won 18 M's when this season ends.

Both Washington and Lee University and the University of Alabama began the new year by opening a handsome new gymnasium.

William S. Murphy, a Harvard graduate, has willed Harvard University $40,000 as a fund to assist deserving namesakes.

A sophomore in Ohio State University is making his way through college by selling sandwiches. Every evening at about nine o'clock he makes the rounds of the dorms and frat houses with his basket, and he venture sells all his sandwiches.

NOTED OF THE INDIANS

Examinations now interrupt the basketball season and the next game is not until February the third, when the Blues are met in Richmond.

The Academy however plays the John Marshall High quint on the local floor Friday night. The little Indians are putting up a good game this year and deserve the support of the College men.

The score doesn't indicate that it was a sick team that met the Blues last Saturday. Nevertheless Robertson stopped at the end of the first half and took to his bed; Zion got up just to play the last half; Stryker had just recovered from grippe; and Zehmer wasn't even in uniform. Wait until they all feel fit!

Those who watched the team could see that this sickness had its effect. It wasn't the same team that displayed that rush and pep in the Howitzer game that hooked up with the other Richmond militiamen Saturday.

Hughes played a good game at center for the visitors and caged five field goals. He was not very proficient at tossing fouls however and missed four of his five attempts.

The game was remarkably free from fouls and Referee Hubbard was called upon to exact only ten penalties.

The Blues attempted a good deal of dribbling but did not reckon on the size of the floor. They wouldn't much more than get started before one of the Indians would break up the dribble.

Gayle seems to improve with every game. He negotiated eleven field goals in the Blues game and was all over the floor until the game was safely tucked away. It is remarkable the way in which he shoots baskets from over in the corner.

Captain Jones wasn't in his usual form and missed several shots. He didn't get but five baskets.

If the Blues had been consistent in their shooting there would have been an entirely different score.
Yes, and if the Varsity hadn't missed so many shots there would have been another tale to tell. So why worry about it?

It was an exciting game that the Academy staged last Thursday.
The teams couldn't hold the ball when the score stood 24-25 and the wonder is that another basket was ever shot. But Capt. Ellis was there with the needed points at the right time.

It looked right bad for the Pa-pooses during the first half and all credit is due them for the comeback they pulled. A come-back game in a prep. school is something seldom seen.

We hasten to correct a mistake occurring on the editorial page of our last issue. An oversight made inhospitable unhospitable.

As the faculty has not seen fit to excuse the staff from examinations, the Flat Hat will be forced to suspend publication until after February 1st.
